11 Rose Lea Court, Warwick

Under Offer

Originally built by Richard Adams as a display, the quality and size of this home will definitely impress. The generously sized bedrooms are built-in with the master having ensuite plus walk-in robe. Other features include a formal lounge room, open plan air conditioned living that includes a dining area plus spacious kitchen and there is also a large rumpus room which could be converted to a double lock up garage. A covered entertainment area is off the living room. All windows and sliders are tinted and security screened. Access to the backyard is through a side gate on the fenced 778sqm block. Only an inspection will reveal the quality, size and beauty of this home.
